Preamble

- ICICI Group expects all its employees and Directors to act in accordance with high professional and ethical standards. You must be, and be seen to be, committed to integrity in all aspects of your activities and comply with all applicable laws, regulations and internal policies.
- In accepting a position with ICICI Group, each of the employee becomes accountable for compliance with the law, with the ICICI Group Code of Business Conduct and Ethics ('the Code'), and with policies of your respective business units.
- The standards of the Code are not necessarily prescribed by the regulators - they are something, which a well-respected institution must have in place and adhere to on an ongoing basis. We therefore expect a high level of ethical conduct.
- You must conduct your duties according to the language and spirit of this Code and seek to avoid even the appearance of improper behaviour. Your actions need to demonstrate and evidence the principle of acting in good faith and without negligence. You should be aware that even well intentioned actions that violate the law or this Code may result in negative consequences for ICICI Group and for the individuals involved.
- While covering a wide range of business practices and procedures, these standards cannot and do not cover every issue that may arise, or every situation where ethical decisions must be made, but rather set forth key guiding principles that represent ICICI Group's policy.

Group Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Conflicts of Interest and Outside Activities

Conflicts Of Interest – General Principles

- Conflicts of interest can occur if our business practices sacrifice interests of one set of customers in favour of another or place business interests ahead of customers.
- To address such situations, the Bank has adopted a Framework for Managing Conflicts of Interest which articulates several measures taken by the Bank in ensuring that conflicts of interest are handled in an appropriate manner, at the individual employee level, at the level of Board of Directors, at the Group level and at Entity level.
- If you are aware of any circumstances which you think may give rise to a conflict of any kind, or if you become aware of information which places you in difficulty in carrying out your function (for example, if you obtain confidential information about a company), you must handle the same as per the conflicts of interest framework applicable to your Company.
- As part of its management of conflicts of interest, the Bank has put in place Standard Operating Procedure for “Operational Framework for Ethical Walls” for ensuring that confidential information is appropriately secured and decisions and service to clients are independent of such confidential information. There are information barriers between departments that routinely have access to confidential/non - public Information ("Insider Areas") from those who do not have such access ("Public Areas"). As a general principle, “Insider areas” should refrain from sharing any information with anybody in the “Public Areas”. However, in case the need is felt, the procedure for crossing the wall including obtaining prescribed approvals needs to be followed.
- You are expected to be sensitive to any activities, interests or relationships that might interfere with or even appear to interfere with, your ability to act in the best interests of ICICI Group and its customers.
- Conflicts of Interest includes, but is not limited to, a director or an employee who is a party to, or who is a director or an employee of, or who has a material interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the ICICI Group. It also means any situation that could reasonably be expected to impair their ability to render unbiased and objective advice/decision/recommendation or that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect that person's duty to ICICI Group.

- The Chairman/Managing Director/other directors or any employee who is directly or indirectly concerned or interested in any proposal would disclose the nature of his interest to the Board/Committee any such proposal is being discussed. This disclosure can be provided before or during the meeting. The Chairman/Managing Director/ other directors or any employee shall recuse himself/herself from attending the meeting for such proposal unless his/her presence is required by the other directors/members for the purpose of eliciting information and such Chairman/Managing Director/other directors or the employee so required to be present would abstain from voting on any such proposal. The decision on presence or recusal of interested persons will rest with the Chairman/approving authority of the committee/meeting.
- You must abide by specific “Dos and Don’ts” issued by business group you are part of, or those issued by other groups such as Compliance Group, Financial Crime Prevention and Reputation Management Group or Human Resource Management Group.
- You must disclose to the Compliance Group of your Company annually, a statement that you have no material interest or any other conflicting interests, in any person/ entity who is a party to a material contract or proposed contract with the ICICI Group. In case of any doubt in regard to the extent of disclosure applicable, kindly contact the Compliance Group of your Company.

It must be noted that irregularities cited in the above categories are indicative in nature and are not exhaustive.

Disciplinary Procedures

The following paragraphs deal with the disciplinary procedures, which could be used as indicative guidance for the ICICI Group constituents while formulating their respective disciplinary procedures.

- The primary objective of the disciplinary procedure is to make employees aware of the instance/s of apparent and reported breach of the Code on their part and to afford such employees with an opportunity of making submission against such reported instance/s including improving their attendance, work performance or amending/rectifying their conduct as the case may be, should they fall below the standards expected by ICICI Group.
- When deciding upon the appropriate way to deal with any potential issues an employee has in meeting ICICI Group standards, the reasons behind this difficulty will be considered. There may be occasions when problems are due to an employee's incapability to do his/her job, personal circumstances or health rather than there being any measure of personal blame. In such cases, the employee will be informed by the immediate manager that he/she is not meeting the required standards.

- The immediate manager will discuss his or her concerns with the employee and where appropriate, will agree objectives with the employee to be achieved over a reasonable period of time. The immediate manager will also discuss any assistance the employee may require, including where practicable - training. If after a reasonable time, an employee is still unable to reach the required standards, the matter may be dealt with within the context of the disciplinary procedure.
- If the problem relates to the employee's health, the immediate manager may arrange for the employee to see ICICI Group nominated Medical Advisor.
- If the problem stems from the employee's failure to demonstrate satisfactory conduct, or there are problems with the employee's performance e.g. due to the employee's inattention or lack of motivation, the disciplinary procedure will be implemented.
- Usually disciplinary procedure would start after detailed fact finding exercise/internal investigation; is carried out and a detailed report to that effect is submitted to the concerned committee for deciding the level of disciplinary action, if any, to be imposed on the employee.

Disciplinary action

Depending upon the nature and seriousness of non-compliant behaviour, the Company may take corrective action against the erring employees. The Company may prefer civil or criminal action against errant employees. Such actions may include penalties as deemed appropriate considering the nature of violation and its implications on the Company. The extenuating/mitigating circumstances, if any, may also be considered while taking action.

These actions could be - Cautionary Action, Deterrent Action and Capital Action

- Depending upon the nature of such report employee/s would be informed about the gist of the instance/s of breach of the Code reported against them and would be afforded with an opportunity to make their submission/s in writing within specific time frame to the designated official. On receipt of such communication, employees would be required to make their submission/s in writing which would be taken into consideration while arriving at a decision. However, in case employee/s choose not to avail of such an opportunity within the specific time frame or within extended time frame, if allowed by HRMG in deserving cases, it would be construed that the employee concerned has no submission to make and accordingly the matter would be decided upon ex-parte and any decision taken in that circumstances would be binding on the concerned employee.
- HRMG of the Company would put in place a matrix of Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority to carry out all administrative/disciplinary actions envisaged under the Code.

For ICICI Bank, India, a designated Disciplinary Authority will on the basis of reports submitted to it by an Investigating authority and/or suo-moto after ensuring adherence to due process initiate appropriate investigation and disciplinary proceedings/actions against an erring employee and impose penalty/ies including but not limited to, placing an employee under suspension.

An employee against whom an order has been passed by a Disciplinary Authority, may, within seven working days from the date of receipt of the order, prefer an appeal in writing to the Appellate Authority. Such written appeals, if received within the stipulated time, shall be disposed of by the Appellate Authority.

The Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority shall be as under –

| Grade/Level   | Disciplinary Authority  | Appellate Authority                               |

| SMP  | ED*  | Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer (MD & CEO) |
| Whole Time Directors   | Board Governance, Remuneration and Nomination Committee (BGRNC)/ Board | Board  |

*In the event disciplinary action affects terms of employment, BGRNC will review and make necessary recommendations to the Board.
