- (vi) Your complaint / suggestion will be acknowledged immediately and appropriate action will be taken for redressal thereof within one month from the date of receipt of your letter.

7. General Conditions of Service

- (i) The mutilated/cut notes are exchanged by the Bank as a matter of grace under the Reserve Bank of India (Note Refund) Rules. When the mutilated/cut note is not found payable under the Rules, the same is rejected and rejection advice issued to the tenderer. The rejected note is retained by the bank and destroyed after four months. The tenderer can make appeal for reconsideration during the preservation period of four months to the concerned Issue Office
- (ii) Notes/coins which are found to have been forged/ counterfeited are impounded and no value thereof is paid. Such notes/coins are retained by the Bank after issue of advice to the tenderer.
- (iii) The security features of the bank notes issued by RBI are furnished as information to members of the public in the Bank's website <http://www.rbi.org.in/currency/banknotes.html> .
- (iv) Demand for notes and coins should be commensurate with the genuine business/personal need of the customer.

8. Exchange of soiled and mutilated notes and coins at the counters of commercial banks

- (i) Offices of the Reserve Bank are located at selected centers. The Bank has, therefore, made arrangement for provision of the facility of exchange of soiled notes, exchange of notes to coins and coins to notes at the branches of scheduled commercial banks. While the facility for exchange of soiled notes is available at all branches of public sector banks and branches of private sector bank, the facility of exchange of mutilated / cut notes is available only at the designated bank branches of commercial banks. A list of the designated bank branches where the mutilated notes can be exchanged is available at the enquiry counter of the RBI Offices. Such designated bank branches also have instructions to display notice board regarding availability of mutilated notes exchange facility. In case any such branch refuses to provide the exchange facility, aggrieved members of the public can complain to the Chairman and Managing Director/CEO of the commercial bank concerned. In case the grievance is not redressed, the matter may be brought to the notice of the concerned Regional Office of Reserve Bank of India.
- (ii) Branches of other banks i.e. Co-operative Banks and Regional Rural Banks are expected to exchange notes and coins at their convenience. They, however, do not have powers to exchange mutilated notes.
